EXAMINATION-IN-CHIEF BY SPP RAJA THAKARE FOR THE STATE.

1. I used to work in imitation jewelery at Jogeshwari and was staying in Byculla. I used to go by train from Byculla to Dadar and from Dadar to Jogeshwari. The incident took place on 11/07/2006. I went for work in the morning on that day as usual. After close of office hours, at about 6.00 – 6.15 pm, I went to Jogeshwari station for boarding the 6.31 pm local train going to Churchgate at platform no.2. My friend Arvind Chikane was with me. At that time the train from Churchgate to Borivali came on platform no.1. When it started going ahead, there was a loud explosion and blood started coming from my ears. We both fell down and for about two minutes we did not know what had happened. My friend was lying by my side having sustained injury to his head. In order to pick him up, I tried to get up and found that my left leg was missing from the knee down. People on the platform were lying down. After some time other people came for help. I was taken to Cooper hospital. I informed my family members on mobile. My friend Arvind Chikane had died. I was thereafter taken to Balaji hospital at Byculla, where I was admitted for 7-8 days. Thereafter, I was taken to Sabu Siddhiqui hospital where I was operated. I was admitted there for 15-20 days. I lost my left leg from knee down and an artificial leg is fitted. There were two operations. Police took my statement.
